Santa Margarita Ecological Reserve The Chaparral Docent-led Hike

Dates

Sunday, December 8, 2019
Sunday, February 23, 2020
Sunday, March 15, 2020

All hikes begin promptly at 8:00 am

This hike leaves from the north side of the reserve and traverses through chaparral for a total round trip of 3 miles. The route is on a single track trail with uneven footing and mild gains in elevation. After the hike, you will have the option of driving or hiking ½ mile to the North Field Station facility where there are picnic tables, a restroom and most importantly a beautiful view of the Temecula Gorge.

To register for this hike, please contact Beth Cobb at smerdocenthikes@gmail.com.

Additional information about SDSU Field Stations can be found at fsp.sdsu.edu.

These exclusive docent-led hikes are a fun way to visit this special place which is not open to the public. In addition to protecting local flora and fauna, the reserve provides environmental research opportunities for students and researchers worldwide.
